ABOUT CCNDNC

The CNLU-CARCIL National Deal Negotiation Competition on FinTech Laws is a practice-oriented initiative aimed at equipping participants with essential negotiation and transactional skills within the rapidly evolving fintech landscape. The Competition is designed to simulate real-world commercial negotiations at the intersection of finance, technology, and law, enabling participants to engage with contemporary transactional challenges.

The Competition will be conducted in a three-stage format. In the first stage, teams will be required to submit a negotiation strategy or preliminary deal brief within the prescribed timeline. Teams are required to register with an initial fee. Based on evaluation, the top 24 teams will qualify for the second stage, which will consist of virtual negotiation rounds.

The top 8 teams will advance to the final stage, to be held on campus, where participants will engage in live negotiation rounds involving complex, real-world inspired fintech transactions. Selected teams will be required to complete further registration for the advanced rounds. The offline rounds are scheduled for 05th September 2026.

The Competition is designed to assess negotiation skills, commercial awareness, legal reasoning, and adaptability in dynamic transactional settings. Prizes will be awarded, along with other recognitions.
